

Quantity and measurements are subject to a tolerance of +/- 5% because they are mechanically predetermined